Candidates File for March 7 Election

A total of ten candidates will be running for the four offices on the ballot in the March 7, 2006 municipal election.

Three candidates will run for mayor of the Village of Los Lunas: Incumbent Louis F. Huning, Frank A. Otero and Victor "Bud" Williams.

All candidates are listed in alphabetical order for their particular office. This is not necessarily the order on the ballot. Candidates drew for ballot order after this newsletter went to press.

In Los Lunas Village Council District Two Incumbent Charles Griego is the only candidate.

In Village Council District Four

Incumbent Robert E. Vialpando and Victor P. Vigil will be on the ballot.

Running for municipal judge are Incumbent Jeff Aragon, Patrick M. Ortiz, Carlos A. Perea and Glenn E. Walker.

Candidates had until 5 pm Tuesday, January 17, to withdraw. See below for more election dates.

January Cleanups Pick up 77 Bags

Two cleanup groups worked in January.

A group from Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church cleaned Lambros Loop collecting 28 bags of trash.

The second group consisted of Community Service people assigned from Los Lunas Municipal Court to do regular monthly service cleanup. They worked along Main Street from the Administration Building to Wal-mart and then in the Sun Ranch area collecting 49 bags.
